1. Our logo and the navigation bar is the first thing the user sees on the website, which takes up around 1/5th of the homepage. The whole website, including the banner is designed using the blue color, since it has been long associated with intelligence and wisdom.
2. Next thing the user sees is the navigation bar, which has the following categories: Home, Colleges, About, Imprint. Home, About and Imprint pages have the detailed information, while the “Colleges” page is left empty for now.
3. After the navigation bar, there is a short text, such as:

Feel at home

Away from home!

Living on Campus

Do you want to live in a student residence, in a shared or single room?? Of course, only you decide where and how you want to live: You have plenty of choices with Saturn Housing!

In the immediate vicinity of the campus, we offer 4 colleges to live in: Krupp, Mercator, College III, Nordmetall. Often the housing question boils down to your preferences, special needs etc.

Login to our Housing Portal to register and get the best accommodation in Bremen!

4. After this text, there is a button for the student to login, with their matriculation num and/or name. The button itself and the login page are not implemented as of yet.
5. After this, the page is pretty much empty, except the end, where there would be contact us text with some emails/numbers and also some social media icons. The contact us part of the page is in dark blue color, to differentiate it from the rest of the page.
6. There is also a simple imprint page which consists only of the following text(+contact):
